CHARLINE VON HEYL'S DIAL P FOR PAINTING, 2017. COURTESY OF THE ARTIST AND PETZEL.

Charline von Heyl's "New Work" at Petzel

Every canvas presents a new problem. In Charline von Heyl's ninth solo show with Petzel gallery, the painter sets up a seemingly unbeatable scenario and solves it with a potent mixture of wit and technique. Every work encapsulates its own conversation. The dialogue spills into a roundtable as the paintings begin talking to each other. For a moment you can imagine them in the artist's studio after dark whispering to one another.
