

Galerie

Editors' Picks: 9 Great Art and Design Events This Week

Derrick Adams's geometric portraits take over Luxembourg & Dayan and Baxter St hosts its annual fête

by GALERIE EDITORS

FEBRUARY 25, 2019

Here are Galerie's picks of the must-see art and design events in New York this week, from a massive installation of industrial machines in Brooklyn to a '90s-themed gala to support emerging photographers on the Lower East Side.

6. Jorge Pardo: Eccentric Reflexivity

Petzel

Jorge Pardo challenges Marcel Duchamp's exploration of readymades in an exhibition of lighthearted works created when Pardo was a student at the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, California, from 1988 to 1994. The solo exhibition reveals Pardo's wide-ranging body of work, which blends conventional art and design elements.

Jorge Pardo, Fuck Me Shoes, 1990. Wood, leather, rubber, oil paint.
Photo: Courtesy of Petzel Gallery

Where: Petzel, 35 East 67th Street, Third Floor

When: February 22–April 20

<https://www.galeriemagazine.com/editors-picks-february-25-19/>