Each week, we search for the most exciting and thought-provoking shows, screenings, and events. In light of the global health crisis, we are currently highlighting events in person and digitally, as well as in-person exhibitions open in the New York area. See our picks from around the world below. (Times are all EST unless otherwise noted.)

Through Saturday, March 6

12. "Joyce Pensato Fuggetabout It (Redux)" at Petzel, New York

In 2011, Joyce Pensato was evicted from her East Williamsburg studio after 32 years. She turned her legal defeat into art, staging a critically acclaimed exhibition at Petzel featuring hundreds of paint-splattered objects from her former workspace. She showed the installation in two other iterations during her lifetime; now, her estate has worked with the gallery to stage a "Redux" version, accompanied by the late artists's "eyeball" paintings, based on characters such as Elmo and Felix the Cat.

Location: Petzel, 456 West 18th Street, New York

Price: Free

Time: Tuesday–Saturday, 10 a.m.–6 p.m.
